Largefigures show where trains meet. Trains run each way every day.

Trains will not leave any station before the time fixed in time table. Wood construction and extra trains will keep TEN minutes out of the way of time faxed in time table. Wood construction and extra trains going from Rolla to Franklin will have the right of road in preference to train going from Franklin to Rolla, subject to the following rules: Train going from Franklin to Rolla will wait for train going from Rolla to Franklin two Hours after its own regular time as by time table, then proceed, keeping full two hours behind its own time as by table until such delayed train is passed.

Train going from Rolla to Franklin if detained one Hour and Fifty mixutes after the regular time, as by table of train going from Franklin to Rolla, will have lost the right of road and shall keep out of the way of such train going from Franklin to Rolla, by going on a siding not less than ten inhuites before the time of arrival of such train proceeding as above.

All the general rules of Main Line [except where those that relate to the right to road differ,] will apply to the South-West Branch.

The clock in Freight Office at St. Louis being the standard time, the Conductors on S. W. Branch must regulate their watches by those of the Conductor of Mail West, each day.

OH, GIVE ME THE OULD LOVE AGIN.

Oh, give me the ould love agin now,
And don't ye go off in that style.
Sure throuble has made me quite thin, now,
Oh, Barney bear wid me awhile.
Wid Bryan I'll own I have sported,
But sure dear I thought it no sin,
Call back now, the days when we conted. Call back, now, the days when we coorted, An' give me the ould love agin.

Wid Cupid I've thrifled and flirted, Ontil he smiles on me no more; Oh, lave me not lone and desarted, Oh, lave me not lone and desarted,
But five me yer heart as before.
Now, Barney, me honey, belave me—
For Bryan I don't care a pin; '
Sure, darlin', l'Il no more desave ye,
If ye'll give me the ould love agin.

Faix, Barney, jist make yer mind aisy;
Me flartin' meant nothin' at all;
An' if twill in any way plase ye,
Why, sure, then, the praist ye may call.
Meself knows ye never was cruel,
I guessed yer ould heart I should win;
So I'll lave off tazing, me jewel,
And be thrue to the ould love agin.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[Public Resolution—No. 4.] Joint Resolution to provide for the immediate payment of the army and navy of the United States.

WHEREAS, it is deemed expedient to make immediate provision for the payment of the army and navy: therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized, if required by the exigencies of the public service, to issue on the credit of United States the sum of one hundred millions of dollars of United States notes, in such form as he may deem expedient, not bearing interest, payable to bearer on demand, and of such denominations, not less than one dollar, as he may prescribe, which notes, so issued, shall be lawful money, and a legal tender, like the similar notes heretofore authorized, in payment of all debts public and private, within the United States, except for duties on imports, and interest on the public debt; and the notes so issued shall be part of the amount provided for in any bill now pending for the issue of Treasury notes, or that may be passed hereafter by this Congress.

Approved, January 17, 1863.

THE SITUATION OF THE SOUTH.

The Richmond Examiner of the 20th has a remarkable editorial on the situation. It opens as follows:

It is not altogether an empty boast on the part of the Yankees that they hold all they ever have held, and that another year or two of such progress as they have already made, will find them masters of the Southern Confederacy. They who think independence is to be achieved by brilliant but inconsequential victories, would do well to look with the natural eye at the magnitude of Yankee possessions in our country. Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, are claimed as constituent parts of the Confederation. They are as much in the power of Lincoln as Maine and Minnesota. The pledge once deemed foolish by the South, that he would occupy and possess all the forts belonging to the United States Government, has been redeemed almost to the letter, by Lincoln. The concluding paragraph says:

If within the next two months we do not add seventy-five or a hundred thousand men to our forces in the South, we shall come to grief. If we do add them we are safe beyond peradventure, and next summer will witness the final triumph of our arms!

FROM MEXICO.

New York, Jan. 29.—The following news by the Diobio is highly important:

Advices from Mexico confirm the reported defeat of four thousand French, under General Berthier, by eight hundred Mexican cavalry.

It occurred in a fog, at two o'clock on December 18th. The French were completely routed.

The Mexican General Prisida had captured a convoy from Jalapa for Per-

The Mexican General Algrete, with 10,000 men, made a sortie from Puebla, and attacked a French Division 14,-000 strong at Acazate, eight leagues from Puebla, completely routing the latter. The French had to retire to Orazaba.

The French communication was almost cut off. Jalapa and Tampico are abandoned by them.

The small pox is raging violently in Vera Cruz.

GREELEY FOR FRENCH MEDIATION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Times, editorially, gives currency to a statement that Mr. Greeley has entered into personal negotiations with M. Mercier for French intervention. The Times says: unless we have been misinformed, and we are open to correction on this point, Mr. Greeley has held personal interviews with the French Minister, and has written him letters assuring him that the people are tired of the war-that they desire peace above all things, and that they are ready to welcome the intervention of the French Emperor or any other disinterested European power for the adjustment of the controversy between the Government and the rebel States. We have furthermore been told, he has tolerated if he has not opened a correspondence on this subject with Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio, with a view to cooperation in some plan, and in mediation as the most feasible plan of putting an end to the present war.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORT MONROE, Jan. 28.—The Richmond Whig of the 26th has the follow-

The enemy is advancing from Newbern in two columns, one towards Kingston and the other towards Wilmington.

Mobile, Jan. 26.—A dispatch dated McMinnville, 24th, says the enemy attacked Morgan's regiment this morning. After two hours' hard fighting with a w superior force our men fell back.

Goldsboro, N. C., January 25.—It is reported an Abolition fleet of 22 sail, including two Monitors and six other iron-clads, are in Beaufort harbor. Also, that 52,000 Abolitionists were encamped in Moorehead and Carolina cities.

FROM ARKANSAS.

Napoleon, Ark., Jan. 15, 1863.-The fleet has moved down to this point, and we are waiting for something to turn up. The town is deserted. We naturally expected that after taking the Post, the army would have marched up to clean out Little Rock. The rebels have evacuated St. Charles on the night of 12th, and marched to Little Rock. Little Rock and Pine Bluffs ours, Arkansas would be free, and Missouri safe. from further encroachments. What the powers that be intend to do remains with themselves. There are many rumors. Now and Then.

THE CONSCRIPTION AT THE SOUTH.

Parties who have just returned from the South state as a fact that every owner of twenty or more negroes is exempt-, ed from the conscription, which is now made to include all other whites fit for military service, between the ages of sixteen and fifty. In various parts of, the South adjacent to our lines, particularly in North Carolina, great dissatisfaction is entertained at this favor extended to the wealthy, and numbers are preparing to find within the Federal lines refuge from the Conscription act.

GEN. BANKS TO BE ORDERED TO TEXAS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—A dispatch to the Tribune says that upon General Butler's arrival at New Orleans, to resume command of the Department of the Gulf, Gen. Banks will be ordered to Texas, at the head of a sufficient force, for the purpose of assisting the Union men of that State to restore it to the

Union as a free commonwealth. BURNSIDERESIGNED
